The Colorado Bar Association, CLE

The Continuing Legal Education program has developed a comprehensive legal guide to help nonprofit organizations in Colorado understand and comply with the legal environment here. The publication titled A Guide for Colorado Nonprofit Organizations is a vital source of information, and is easy to read and understand for everyone involved with a nonprofit organization, from the legal counsel, to the board of directors, to the staff. CLE is offering Colorado Nonprofit Association members the Colorado Bar Association member price of $159 on this two-volume desk reference set, a savings of $26 dollars! CLE will also contact purchasers about annual updates and supplements to the Guide so it will never become obsolete. Contact Kristen Wolfe at kwolfe@coabar.org to purchase this invaluable resource!

Constant Contact

Constant Contact is the leading email service provider for small businesses and organizations. It's easy to use: whether you are building a campaign for your customers or allowing them to build it themselves, Constant Contact provides the simplest user interface on the market. In addition, its reporting and list management features make it easy to measure results and add/import subscriber lists. It's also designed to be affordable – and now Colorado Nonprofit Association members can receive Constant Contact products at a 10 percent discount. Members can access the Constant Contact marketing extranet to discover how email marketing can fit in with their other online marketing efforts. For more information, contact Michael Eubank, Account Manager at (781) 472-6256 or meubank@constantcontact.com.

First Data Corporation

Thanks to our business association with First Data Corporation, a world leader in electronic payment solutions, we're offering our members a full range of payment processing services at special low rates.

Credit Card Processing

Accept credit cards on location or online! First Data will process donations, dues and payments, and the funds will go into your existing checking account. Full support for all major credit cards, with special low rates, easy-to-understand fees and no hidden charges.

Gift cards

Whatever your organization sells – from show tickets to coffee mugs – now you can sell more! First Data's gift card is a gift certificate in the form of a credit card. When your supporters buy gift cards for their friends and family, they're spreading the word about your organization and generating more revenue. You choose standard or custom cards.

Providers' Resource Clearinghouse

Providers' Resource Clearinghouse (PRC) was opened in 1993 by a group of community leaders from the business, faith and nonprofit sectors who wanted to bridge the gap between struggling human-service providers and businesses seeking to serve the community through in-kind giving. PRC accepts donations from corporations and individuals of new and used office and household furnishings plus new office and household supplies, and finds new life for the items by recycling or redistributing them to other nonprofits and those they serve for a small fee. For more information please contact them at (303) 962-2270 or visit their web site at <http://www.prccolorado.org/>, and be sure to mention that you are a member of the Colorado Nonprofit Association.
